

TOMINTOUL VINTAGE 1973

This single malt has been selected not only because of its rarity of age but, very significantly, because it is the result of a careful "finishing" process.

Only 218 bottles released globally.

TASTING NOTES

- ◇ Colour: Deep amber
- ◇ Nose: Clean Sherry influence on a sweet malty layer. Intense waxy aromas merge with hints of orange citrus and Christmas pudding.
- ◇ Palate: Richly mouth-filling as notes of nuts, chocolate, mocha coffee bean and spicy oak tannins vie for supremacy.
- ◇ Finish: Dry and spicy with a rich and enduring finalé.

ABV 44.5% vol

