Challenge 2019

ABOUT ROCK ISLAND 10 YEARS OLD:

Some of Scotland's small-but-perfectly-formed islands are famed not just for their somewhat unhurried way of life, but more so for the remarkable Single Malts distilled there, bursting with flavours of the sea. Rock Island 10 Years Old is a Small Batch marriage of Single Malt Whiskies distilled on the isles of Jura, Arran, Orkney and Islay.

ABOUT THE AWARDS:

The Independent Bottlers Challenge is the annual selection of the very best independent bottlers. Recent releases are tasted from this select group to establish the finest in each region.

TASTING NOTES:

The nose is initially barley-rich and buttery, developing to wave-soaked rocks with gentle peat smoke and citrus fruits. The palate bursts with a beachy quality – sea spray, black pepper and damp ash. The finish goes on and on, with wave after wave of wood embers, orange peel and gentle spice.

KEY USPs:

- No colouring
- No chill-filtration
- Bottled at high alcohol strength (46%)
