Source IWSR data year ending December 2014

World's number one selling limoncello, made with the peel of fully ripened lemons!

Italy is one of the world's largest producers of lemons so naturally, Italians have developed a delicious way to use the plentiful fruit. What started as an artisanal phenomenon in southern Italy is now available in a far more sophisticated form. Limoncè, the number one selling limoncello in Italy and the world, is smooth and balanced, cool and clean.

In 1994 Stock Limoncè was the top produced limoncello brand in the world, bringing tremendous growth and worldwide recognition both to the brand and the category.

Limoncè is made from the peels of natural Italian lemons and is a classic Italian liqueur made to a traditional recipe. The zest of lemon peel is infused in sugar and alcohol to produce an aromatic liquid that is pleasantly sweet with an intense lemon flavour.
