This expression celebrates the 153rd Open Championship at Royal Portrush and perfectly showcases the Loch Lomond distillery's adeptness and ingenuity in whisky making. A worthy tribute to the people, players and courses throughout the history of The Open.

One of only 3,500 available, this rare 22 Year Old Single Malt Scotch Whisky was distilled in the year 2002 at Loch Lomond, using whisky only from our unique Straight Neck pot stills.

THE OPEN COURSE COLLECTION 2025

ROYAL PORTRUSH LIMITED EDITION SPANISH OAK CASK FINISH

This 22-year-old whisky, finished in first-fill Spanish Oak casks, celebrates every Open Championship from the first ever at Prestwick in 1860 to the 153rd Open at Royal Portrush.

The Spanish Oak finish pays homage to La Girona, a Spanish Armada ship that sank near the course in 1588, connecting the whisky to the rich history of Portrush. Michael and our whisky makers have carefully selected whiskies exclusively from our unique Straight-Neck stills, with a maturation starting in American Oak barrels and hogsheads before finishing in hand-selected first-fill Spanish Oak casks. This meticulous process results in a whisky that embodies the signature Loch Lomond single malt style of fruit, honey, and soft smoke.

As nature intended, the Open Course Collection is non-chill filtered and natural colour.

THE SIGNATURE STYLE

Like the conductor of an orchestra, our Master Blender Michael Henry understands how to bring together flavours to create a dazzling dram. And, as any conductor or craftsmen, we have shaped our distilling style to be as identifiable as their own work. Through the distilling choices we make, our expressions always deliver fruit, honey and soft smoke. It's a style that's served us well, shaped by our history and is identifiable in every sip of our whiskies.
