THE ORIGINAL SERIES

PEATED RIOJA CASK

At Loch Lomond Whisky, we are a flavour-forward distillery—where spirit quality is at the heart of everything we do. With our remarkable Straight Neck and Swan Neck stills, and our own in-house cooperage, we have the freedom to shape flavour in our own way.

Combining peated spirit collected at low strength from our Straight Neck stills with both peated and unpeated distillates from our Swan Neck stills, this expression brings together layers of fruit and rich smoke, showcasing the delicate art of uniting distinct distillate styles. After initial maturation in a variety of American Oak casks, the whisky is finished in first-fill Rioja red wine casks, enhancing its rich fruit character while deepening the soft, smoky complexity.

THE SIGNATURE STYLE

Like the conductor of an orchestra, our Master Blender Michael Henry understands how to bring together flavours to create a dazzling dram. And, as any conductor or craftsmen, we have shaped our distilling style to be as identifiable as their own work. Through the distilling choices we make, our expressions always deliver fruit, sweet honey and soft smoke. It's a style that's served us well, shaped by our history and is identifiable in every sip of our whiskies.

TASTING NOTES

“This whisky opens with aromas of woodsmoke, malty biscuit and redcurrant fruit. On the palate, sweet honey and soft fruits of peach and pear combine with dark chocolate and a touch of orange citrus. The finish is medium in length, with lingering smoke and a gentle richness.”
