A PERFECT UNITY

Campbeltown's iconic harbour was once the last stop for scotch whisky of all regions to the wider world. Once central to some of the most important sea routes in the United Kingdom, it was a central lynchpin to the development of the whisky industry both locally and in wider Scotland. Our aptly named 'Campbeltown Harbour' is a toast to this important port, and the long-standing relationships it has forged between Campbeltown and the wider world. Glen Scotia ~ it's the whisky that binds us.

TASTING NOTES

NOSE: Briny sea spray, violet and lavender, vanilla

TASTE: Soft peach, green apple, toffee fudge, vanilla custard

FINISH: gentle smoke, tangy peat, dry, maritime and medium length
