GLEN SCOTIA DOUBLE CASK BORDEAUX RED WINE CASK FINISH

Campbeltown is Scotland's smallest officially recognised whisky region, but its influence on Scotch Whisky is anything but small.

Once boasting over thirty distilleries, it was known as "The Victorian Whisky Capital of the World". While only a handful of those distilleries remain today, Glen Scotia's big character has stood strong, proudly enduring as one of the last of the many.

RICH & FRUITY

The third release in our award-winning Double Cask range – a series that explores flavour through our historic Port-to-Port connection

- Initially matured in first fill American Oak bourbon barrels, followed by a distinctive nine month finish in FRENCH Bordeaux Red Wine casks
- A vibrant and elegant dram, bursting with red berry fruits and rich maritime depth
- Bottled at 46%, non-chill filtered, and natural in colour – whisky in its purest form

TASTING NOTES

The nine month finish in Bordeaux Red Wine casks creates notes of strawberry and redcurrants layered with a gentle honey sweetness from our first fill bourbon maturation. The palate reveals rich waves of ripe red fruit, balanced by smooth oak character and a distinctive thread of maritime salinity. The finish is long and refined with lingering warmth, subtle tannic spice and a graceful note of Bordeaux's vineyard elegance.
